

14 October 2005

VPD will exhibit at the 13th Annual PARM – Performance Measurement, Attribution & Risk event, 7-10 November 2005, in London

We look forward to meeting with clients and others, and we would welcome participants to visit our exhibition stand. Naturally we will be demonstrating our flagship product, VPD Risk & Performance at the event.

In line with the event programme, we would be happy to demonstrate our fixed income and equity attribution solutions as well as other products and services.
